

Huguenot Society of South Carolina Graduate Scholarship Essay Guidelines and Information

The Society awards a scholarship to a student toward a graduate degree in history. The winning submission will be published in Transactions of the Huguenot Society of South Carolina and the author will be awarded $1,000.

The essay must be a work of scholarship on a Huguenot topic. It may examine any aspect of the religious, political, economic, social, or intellectual history of the French or Walloon Protestants from the sixteenth century to the present. The essay may deal with any appropriate geographical area.

* Submissions must be original, not previously published, and not under consideration by another publication.

* The applicant should submit two hard copies of the essay, as well as a cover letter giving full name, address, telephone number, details of the undergraduate degree and also the graduate degree currently in progress, and the thesis and significance of the paper. Electronic submissions will not be accepted.

* The text should not exceed twenty-five typed and double-spaced pages, excluding footnotes, illustrations, and bibliography. Use one-inch margins for the top, bottom, left, and right.

* All submissions must include footnotes and any other necessary documentation. Titles of the works cited in the essay and notes should be typed in italics and indexed if possible, using the standards set forth in the Chicago Manual of Style, 15th Edition.

* The author of the winning essay will be asked to submit a copy of his/her paper on a Microsoft Word-compatible CD. The winner will also be required to submit permission to publish any material or illustrations included, if needed.

* The Publications Committee of Transactions of the Huguenot Society of South Carolina reserves the right to edit all submissions for spelling, punctuation, grammar, and style. Articles may also be edited for accuracy.

* Applications must be received no later than December 31st. The winner will be announced at the Society's Annual Meeting the following April.

* A $1,000 award will be sent directly to the graduate school in which the winner is enrolled.

* The decision of the judges selected by the Huguenot Society of South Carolina is final and the Society reserves the right to not award the scholarship in a given year if no submission is judged to be of sufficiently high quality.

Submit to:

Graduate Scholarship
Huguenot Society of South Carolina
138 Logan St.
Charleston, SC 29401-1941

(843) 723-3235